

Book Launch: The Stoney Collection!

Autumn 2024

Stories & poems from twenty-one debut Dublin-based writers

Wow, just wow! My second published book this year has dropped. The Stoney Collection is a book of new Irish writing from 21 breakout authors & poets, representing 'The Stoney Writers,' a neighborhood inspired community for creativity. This anthology showcases literary shorts and poetry with a unique arrangement from modern realism and tragic thrillers to surreal satire. As an early stage publishing company, this has been a major leap for me, acting as chief editor, promoter & contributor.
